James McBride
Keynote Speaker

McBride is the son of an African American minister and a Hasidic Jewish mother. His childhood memories inspired McBride to write The Color of Water: A Black Man's Tribute to His White Mother, a meditation on the nature of identity, race and heritage. His book was a fixture on the bestseller list for over a year.

Samuel Betances PhD
Luncheon Speaker

Dr. Betances is a biracial, bicultural and bilingual citizen of the world. Betances inspires people to aim high, reject rejection and embrace themselves and each other as powerful team members working toward a more prosperous future. Betances received his graduate degree from Harvard University.

Maria Root PhD
Luncheon Speaker

Dr. Root has researched and published extensively on the topic of identity development and related topics such as minority mental health, gender and trauma. Published author of Love's Revolution: Racial Intermarriage, Racially Mixed People in America and The Multiracial Experience: Racial Borders As The New Frontier.
